

illumination

Performing Arts

Saturday, October 7, 2006

INTI-ILLIMANI

Music of the Andes

Friday, October 13, 2006

TANGO AND FIRE

Argentine artists display a blend of dance, music, and theatrical expression of the Tango.

Friday, October 20, 2006

TAP KIDS

Best of the nation's young tap dancers, ages 13 to 21.

Friday, October 27, 2006

DERVISH

This six-member ensemble stands at the forefront of traditional Irish music.

Saturday, November 4, 2006

Completely Hollywood (abridged)

REDUCED SHAKESPEARE COMPANY

America's "bad boys of abridgement" take on Tinseltown.

Saturday, December 9, 2006

Sunday, December 10, 2006

A SCOTTISH CHRISTMAS with BONNIE RIDEOUT

A celebratory collection of Scottish carols, wassail tunes, and dance music.

Live on Stage

One-hour matinees for all ages

Saturday, December 2, 2006

GALUMPHA

Stunning acrobatics, striking visual effects, physical comedy, and inventive choreography.

Saturday, May 12, 2007

MICHEL LAUZIERE

Lauziere is a combination of inventor, acrobat, comedian, musician, and juggler rolled into one charismatic "Master of the Unusual."

Saturday, January 27, 2007

ALE MÖLLER BAND

Traditional ethnic music and instruments from various countries and cultures are blended in untraditional combinations.

Friday, February 2, 2007

Universe of Dreams

ENSEMBLE GALILEI with NARRATOR NEAL CONAN

Music is married to poetry and stories inspired by images from the Hubble Space Telescope.

Friday, March 9, 2007

BOYS OF THE LOUGH

One of the trailblazing Celtic bands on the international scene.

Friday, March 16, 2007

Life, A Guide for the Perplexed

FLYING KARAMAZOV BROTHERS

A spectacle of juggling hilarity, Life is a series of parables designed to help one survive the modern world.

Friday, March 30, 2007

Romeo and Juliet

Saturday, March 31, 2007

The Canterbury Tales

AQUILA THEATER COMPANY

Innovative and dynamic, Aquila has gained a well-earned international reputation.

Science Saturdays

Caltech scientists lead discussions after each fascinating CineMuse film.

Saturday, October 14, 2006

A World of Motion

Saturday, November 18, 2006

Polar Bears on Thin Ice

Saturday, January 20, 2007

The Blue Realm—Shark Business

Saturday, March 10, 2007

Weird Nature—Devious Defenses

Saturday, April 14, 2007

Space—Star Stuff

Friday, April 13, 2007

JIGU!

THUNDER DRUMS OF CHINA

Twenty-eight drummers, percussionists, and musicians from China provide an ultra-sensory experience.

Saturday, April 21, 2007

UMBILICAL BROTHERS

An amazing pair of human cartoons; one a whiz with the microphone, the other a limber-limbed comic mime.

Friday, April 27, 2007

MYTHILI PRAKASH & SAMPUTU AND INGELI

Dancer Mythili Prakash portrays the beauty, grandeur, and spirituality of the traditional Bharata Natyam art form of India.

Samputu and Ingeli present drum, dance, song, and hope of Rwanda.

Friday, May 4, 2007

Saturday, May 5, 2007

Sunday, May 6, 2007

CAPITOL STEPS

Congressional staffers turned satirical songwriters skewer politicians of all stripes.

Voices of Vision

Free lecture series

Thursday, October 26, 2006

A Bump in the Night

JOSHUA KANE

Poetry of the fantastic and supernatural

Thursday, November 16, 2006

SHIRLEY CORRIHER

Author, chef, and chemist

Thursday, February 1, 2007

Incognito

MICHAEL FOSBERG

Exploration of hidden identity

Thursday, February 22, 2007

People Like Us—

Social Class in America

LOUIS ALVAREZ AND

ANDREW KOLKER

Thursday, April 19, 2007

CHRISTOPHER CARTER

Mentalist

Look for more information coming soon!

All events are held in Beckman Auditorium. Events, dates, and times are subject to change.

Call (626)395-4652 or, outside the greater Pasadena area call toll-free (888)222-5832 • www.events.caltech.edu