

SCIENCE & PERFORMING ARTS FIELD TRIPS

All programs begin at 10 a.m. and run 60-70 minutes

REEL SCIENCE Recommended for grades 3 - 12

Stunning high-definition programs serve as the spring-board for lively discussions about the science behind the beauty and wonder of nature and space. Programs followed by an engaging and interactive discussion with a Caltech scientist.

Friday, November 7, 2008

CURIOUS - POWERING THE PLANET

Discussion Leader: Jillian Dempsey
Division of Chemistry and Chemical Engineering

Friday, February 6, 2009

WILD WEATHER - WET

Discussion Leader: Bill Patzert
Jet Propulsion Laboratory

Friday, March 6, 2009

EARTHQUAKE COUNTRY - LOS ANGELES

Discussion Leader: Robert de Groot,
Southern California Earthquake Center

Friday, May 8, 2009

SPACE

Discussion Leader: Jessica Collisson
Jet Propulsion Laboratory

Tickets $5 ° Caltech's Beckman Auditorium

LIVE ON STAGE Recommended for all ages

Friday, November 14, 2008

Lakota Sioux Dance Theatre

A rich tapestry of dance, legends, and history of the Lakota Sioux people.

Friday, February 20, 2009

Carolina Chocolate Drops

Young African-American stringband playing the rich tradition of North Carolina's Piedmont region.

Friday, March 13, 2009

Aquila Theatre Company

The Iliad

Innovative production of Homer's epic story of Achilles and the Trojan Wars. Recommended for grades 6 - 12

Friday, April 24, 2009

Sounds of Korea

Dazzling array of Korean music and dance.

Reel Science is made possible through Caltech's participation in the CineMuse Network.
A limited number of complimentary tickets are available for certain school districts through the generosity of the Connie Wei-Luen Kao Memorial Fund and The Friends of Beckman Auditorium.

Call now to order!

Mary Herrera

626•395•6059

mhh@caltech.edu

www.events.caltech.edu